

DOGS RACED AT 31 BELOW ZERO

Missouri Bird Hounds Finished Second in an Alaskan Derby

Nome, Alaska, Jan. 28.—The Solomon Derby, for dog teams, from Nome to Solomon and return, sixty-five miles over the snow trail, was won by John Johnson, driving a team of Siberian wolves, in six hours one and one-half minutes. Oliver Blatchford, driving a team of Missouri bird hounds, was second; Alexander Holmsen, driving a mixed team of Malamutes and Mackenzie River huskies, finished third, and Scotty Allan's team was fourth. The temperature was 30 degrees below zero and, as there was no wind, conditions were ideal for dog team racing.

WILD MAN SEEN NEAR LEAD HILL

The uncanny creature of some kind, resembling a wild man, a giant negro, heavily armed, or some huge mysterious beast, reported to have been seen on White river, and shot at recently by a Lead Hill farmer while the thing was fighting the farmer's dog in his front yard, is supposed to be a wild man, who has been discovered on White river, south of Lead Hill and 15 miles north of Cotter.

A month ago this man was seen for the first time. He is gaunt and half clothed, with long hair and beard. When seen in the woods he always has an old tin bucket and a double-bitted ax. He runs upon the approach of anyone. Several attempts have been made to capture him, but so far all have failed. It is reported that the latest attempt was made a few days ago by Ed Kelley, a homesteader of that section, who met him in the woods. The wild man started to run, and Kelley being something of a sprinter, overtook him. In the fight that followed Kelley got the worst of it, the man attacking him like a wild animal, clawing and practically tearing the clothes off Kelley, as well as scratching and bruising him. Kelley let him go.

The other day hunters located the place that he uses as a place of abode. It is a cave on Howard creek, a small stream running into White river. It consists of a bed of leaves in one corner of the cave, and ashes where a fire had been. As he has no known source of food supply it is generally thought he is living on hogs that run wild in the woods, and nuts. Further efforts will be made to capture this wild man and have him examined as to his sanity by physicians, and if found insane sent to the asylum.—Harrison Republican.

ANOTHER OPTION VOTE IN MONTGOMERY.

Montgomery City, Mo., Jan. 25.—Arrangements are being made for another local option campaign in Montgomery county. Montgomery City will be compelled to vote with the county, as the last census gave the city less than 2,500 inhabitants. There are three saloons here. The wets won the last contest.

YOUNG MAN SUICIDES

Frank Hardwick, of Golden, Shoots Self With Shot Gun

Frank F. Hardwick, nineteen years of age, committed suicide last Thursday by shooting.

The young man had been a sufferer for two years with rheumatism and had begged the physician to amputate the affected limb but the doctor advised against it.

About two o'clock he went to the barn with a shot gun and after climbing into a buggy fired a shot directly into his breast causing almost instant death. He placed the butt end of the gun against the dash board and pushed the trigger with an iron rod.

Funeral services were held at the residence Friday afternoon and interment was made in the Viney cemetery near Golden.

KILLED BY FRISCO TRAIN NEAR MOUNDS

An unidentified negro was run over and killed by a freight train a quarter of a mile south of Mounds some time Friday morning. The mangled body was found lying on the railroad tracks and was taken to Mounds for identification but so far no one has recognized the body.—Sapulpa Democrat.

Next month the club will meet with Ethel Amber.

A PROPOSED AMENDMENT.

Washington, Jan. 25.—Every member of the senate is being canvassed by the friends and opponents of the six-year presidential terms resolution, introduced by Senator Works of California and set for a final vote next Tuesday. It is likely that the number favoring the idea will come close to the two thirds majority.

"I am confident of a majority and hope for the two-thirds," said Senator Works today. "The fact that a single presidential term is demanded in the national Democratic platform has been a factor in bringing many votes for the resolution. I think that the Democrats are more nearly united in its favor than the Republicans."

Gov. Wilson's reappointment of a Republican officeholder in New Jersey upon the ground that he had been a faithful servant of the people will send cold chills down the back of many a patriot out of a job.—St. Louis Republic.

THE EPIDEMIC

After three weeks of general unrest and alarm, due to health conditions, which for a time afforded sufficient cause for serious attention, Verona is now free from the epidemic and affairs are assuming their normal attitude. It being almost two weeks since a case of meningitis has developed in our midst, we are reasonably confident that the crisis is passed. While conditions have been serious in the extreme they have been exaggerated and drawn upon in a most unkind manner, by other localities, all to the discredit of our town.—Verona Advocate.

Best Cough Medicine for Children.

"I am very glad to say a few words in praise of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," writes Mrs. Lida Dewey, Milwaukee, Wis. "I have used it for years both for my children and for myself, and it never fails to relieve and cure a cough or cold. No family with children should be without it as it gives almost immediate relief in cases of croup." Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is pleasant and safe to take, which is of great importance when a medicine must be given to young children. For sale by all dealers.

Well we are here but it seemed as though we were all to be most frozen under Monday, after having such a pretty day Sunday.

The awful list of injuries on a Fourth of July staggers humanity. The prospective buyer, especially the farmer, receives a copy of the illustrated catalogue of the mail order house. He has the opportunity presented him of a careful study of prices and illustrations and leisurely makes out an order for such goods as he desires. The home merchant has the same goods on his shelf and is as anxious to sell and reap a profit as the mail order house, but, and here is where he loses, he considers advertising an expense and simply waits for the prospective buyer to hunt him up and purchase his wares. The result is that the cash paying buyer sends his money out of the country, while the non-advertising merchant gets the credit trade or keeps his goods on the shelf. The merchant is slowly awakening to the fact that in order to compete with the mail order man he must use up-to-date business methods.

The editor of the Hiawatha, Kan., World puts it up to the town's multitude of promiscuous solicitors of cash for every kind of scheme or enterprise in the proper style; something most other editors have not the nerve to do. This is what he says: "We want this to soak in: We do enough for this town in keeping up a daily paper when a weekly is good enough for any town the size of Hiawatha. We won't give money for any other purpose. What we give to keep the daily in print is more than any other citizen gives to town enterprise. So pass us when you pass the plate. We are doing our share."

The Cassville Democrat objects to the TIMES' suggestion that there is a bunch of factions in that town that are watching to play the little Jack Horner act with the new court house, but the general public are of the opinion that some kind of a shady deal is on foot. We hope that there is not and that a full value $50,000 court house will be built. The TIMES is in receipt of an anonymous letter, post marked at Cassville, in which we are advised where to look to find the Senegambian in the wood pile, but as the writer failed to sign his name, we cannot make the article public.

STATE OF MISSOURI, ss.
County of Barry, ss.
Thomas J. Swaffar, plaintiff, vs.
Thomas M. Jackson, William J. Jackson, James Jackson, Thomas Jackson, Jr., Elijah Jackson, George Jackson, Lycurgus Jackson, Walter Jackson, Luther Jackson, Dora Cannady, Samantha McPhail, Minnie Blalock, Bertha Moreland, Lillie Barrett, Eliza Commons, Mary Evans, and also John Kesterson, Annie Kesterson and John Mitchell, if living, and if dead their each of their unknown consorts, widows, widowers, heirs, devisees, donees, alienees or immediate mesne or remote, voluntary or involuntary grantees, defendants.—In the Circuit Court, March term, 1913.

The State of Missouri, to the above named defendants, greeting:

You are hereby notified that an action has been commenced against you in the Circuit Court of the County of Barry, in the State of Missouri, the object and general nature of which is to correct the erroneous description of land in the last will and testament of Hugh L. Jackson, deceased: that the will describes the land as the S. E. of the N. W. and N. of the S. W. and 26 acres off the N. side of the S. W. of the S. W., Sec. 10, Twp. 24, Range 27, in Barry County, Missouri, whereas said land should have been described as the southwest quarter of the northeast quarter and the northwest quarter of the southeast quarter and the northeast quarter of the southwest quarter, and 26 acres off of the north side of the southeast quarter of the southwest quarter of section 10, township 24, of range 27, situated in Barry County, Missouri, and praying the Court to find, adjudge and decree that the land last above described was the premises actually conveyed and intended to be conveyed by the said Hugh L. Jackson by said last will and testament, and that the general costs of this action be apportioned equitably among the parties thereto, and for all other relief.

Plaintiff alleges under oath in his petition that the defendant, Elijah Jackson, is a non-resident of the State of Missouri, and that John Kesterson, Annie Kesterson and John Mitchell, if living, are non-residents of the State of Missouri, and if either or all of them be dead, they left heirs, and therefore there are persons interested in or who claim to be interested in the subject matter of plaintiff's petition, whose names he cannot insert herein because they are unknown to him; that such unknown persons derive or claim to derive their title or claim as consorts, heirs, devisees, donees, alienees, or immediate, mesne or remote, voluntary or involuntary grantees of such deceased persons, if any. Which said action is returnable on the first day of the next term of this court, to be begun and held at the court house in the city of Cassville, in the County of Barry and State of Missouri, on the 17th day of March next, when and where you may appear to defend such action; otherwise plaintiff's petition will be taken as confessed and judgment rendered accordingly.

And it is further ordered that a copy hereof be published according to law in the Monett Times, a weekly newspaper published in Barry County, Missouri.
